Monday arriv'd a Mail from France, and two from Flanders.

Rome, May 22. N. S.

THE Affairs of the Conclave are now at such a Crisis, that we know not whether to hope it will be at an end with the Whitsun-Week, or whether the Weather proves too hot for the Cardinals to stay in their Cells. Almost all the Members of the Two old Colleges have openly for Cardinal Gotti, who before he was made to the Purple distinguish'd himself by several Treatises which he wrote in Defence of the Doctrine of St. Thomas, and by others wherein he attacked the Errors of Jansenius and Quesnel, and who has made a Cardinal, has always made the Cardinal his Delight. The Cardinal delance has sent an Express to Vienna, to desire new Elections; and if the Imperial Court thinks as he does, the Answer will not fail to be in Favour of this Prelate; and we may possibly have a Pope in 3 Weeks Time. Last Saturday the Cardinal gave a great Ball for the Entertainment of the Prince and Princess of Craon, the Chevalier de St. George and his two Sons, the Ambassadors of France, Venice, Naples, Poland and Sardinia, above 40 Ladies and their Husbands, several Noblemen, and Gentry, both Italian and French.

Mentz, June 5. The Elector of Mentz and the Duke of Hesse-Cassel, as Count of Hanau, have their Dispute about a small District, situate on the Side of the Main near Runtzelheim; and two Days ago an Engagement had like to have happen'd between their Forces. Eighteen hundred Men, partly Regular Forces and partly Militia of the Electorate of Mentz, march'd to take possession of that District, but they found a Regiment of Foot advantageously posted there, which had been sent from Hanau. The Troops of Mentz immediately invested it, in order to cut off all Communication, but the Generals have since agreed to suspend the Affair for a few Days, and both the Regular and Militia are separated.

London, May 28. From the great Regard the Emperor shews the General Baron de Schmettau, easy to infer, that what was published in the 57th of March last from Scauffhausen is one of the most Falshoods that ever was invented, as well as what was inserted in the 57th Tome of a German Paper, intitled, The Secretary of State for the Year 1739. 'Tis a Shame that the Authors of those Advertisements should offer to impose upon the Publick, by saying that they received them from an Officer at the Hague. But the very Stile and abusive Expressions of those Articles discover at first Sight that they are false; for it is not credible that an Imperial Officer should be capable of publishing such gross and palpable Lies. Those scandalous Calumnies discover only that his Excellency the Baron de Schmettau is envy'd for his Merit, as well as the other Persons of Distinction who are reflected on in this Manner: But this is no new Thing, for Merit is always envy'd. By good Luck the Reputation of these Gentlemen is so well establish'd with Kings and great Princes, that such Pasquinades, and Inven-tions so maliciously invented, will never find least Credit with them, nor with the sensible Part of Mankind, but will be always look'd upon as Contempt and Indignation.
